

Organisation Diversity Data

The Team at Brian Barr Solicitors are proud to be a well-balanced mix of experience, age, youth, background, education and social diversity. You can see all that from the table below.

What the figures do not show is the stability within the team and the respect that team members have for Brian, the Managing Director, and for each other.

All the lawyers trained here and became permanent, valued members of staff.

A hallmark of the company is our productive, harmonious and professional environment.

All staff are appreciated and nurtured and this is reflected in the way that clients are treated.
